

EMMA RODGERS

You are invited to an Afternoon with International Sculptor Emma Rodgers

Upton Hall School FCJ Wirral CH496JL
Wednesday 18th March 2015 @ 2pm

Tickets £15

Emma Rodgers studied for both her B.A. Hons and M.A. at Wolverhampton University. Since graduating she has exhibited worldwide, including the Victoria & Albert Museum, Stricoff Fine Art N.Y., Lineart Ghent, Cork Street, Royal Academy of Art, Collect at The Saatchi, S.O.F.A. Chicago and New York, Wei Ling Gallery Kuala Lumpur, Art Paris at the Grande Palais Paris and most recently the Alice Mogabgab Galerie, Beirut, curated by Luc Jacquet writer and director of March Of the Penguins. She has also been featured in a documentary dedicated to her work on the Sky Arts Channel and is currently working with Marvel films.

Rodgers was involved with The Craft Councils Firing Up Project, working with a range of schools in the North West.

National Museums and Galleries have purchased Rodgers work as part of their collection.

She creates the shields for Liverpool Football Club.

She has received acclaim for her energy and dynamic approach to her work. She was recently featured in Best of British Singapore on which she won National Critics Choice.

The demonstration starts at 2 p.m. and there will be tea, coffee and cakes served afterwards. There will also be examples of the Upton Hall School's art work on display.

Parking is available in the school grounds.
